

SMU's Simmons School of Education and Human Development continues to offer a rich, interdisciplinary education that prepares students for the challenges of the 21st century. Our programs are designed to foster critical thinking, problem-solving, and communication skills, while also providing a strong foundation in the liberal arts. We are committed to excellence in teaching and research, and to providing a supportive and inclusive learning environment for all students. Our faculty members are leaders in their fields, and our students are highly motivated and engaged. We are proud to be part of the Simmons community, and we look forward to continuing to make a positive impact on the world.
