Annette Caldwell Simmons Hall was dedicated on Sept. 24, 2010. Hundreds of guests, including students, faculty and staff attended the ribbon-cutting ceremony and open house. A landmark gift of $20 million from Harold C. and Annette Caldwell Simmons '57 in 2007 provided an endowment for the school and its new headquarters.

The Luminary Awards were established in 2009 to honor those who reflect meaningful change in education. First recipients pictured with Annette Caldwell Simmons '57 include Margaret Spellings (left), former U.S. Secretary of Education; Geraldine "Tincy" Miller '56, Texas State Board of Education; and Terry Flowers, headmaster and executive director of St. Philips School and Community Center.

"When it comes to doing what works, SMU is among the best in the world. I'm confident that your new school will graduate not only some of the most talented teachers in the profession, but also some of the most prepared for real-world classrooms."
